

What is M.P.D?

"What is M.P.D.?" (Multiple Personality Disorder) is an expose of a diabolic deception being used in the world today, by Satan and his army of demons to imprison a multitude of victims in a Demonic Stronghold of Torment, Hopelessness and Despair. Only the truth can set them free of this Stronghold. Jesus said in John 8:32,

"You will know the truth and the truth will set you free."

This expose will be presented in four articles of which "The Myth of MPD" is the first. One of these articles will be sent out over the next four months. With each we will be offering a free MP3 download of a teaching from TDS Ministries. This first free download is on the Stronghold of Deception.

The Myth of M.P.D.

Part 1

In June 2011, I had an unusual experience with a woman suffering from a disorder the Psychiatric Community refers to as Multiple Personality Disorder. This condition was studied as early as the 1800's. But the term was not coined until the early 1950's by two psychiatrists to describe this condition of two or more identities or personalities existing in one human body.

This condition is also referred to by other names including split personality, splinter personality, alternate personality, alter, and multiplicity. In 1998 a new term Dissociative Identity Disorder was introduced to replace the term Multiple Personality Disorder. However, the term Multiple Personality continues to be the most widely used term when referring to this condition.

My purpose in sharing this woman's experience is to expose this lie of Satan that has deceived not only the secular world but many in the Christian community as well. They have accepted this disorder as a mental condition rather than a spiritual one. This condition is nothing more than a demon with an extreme makeover.

This cunning deception has put many of God's people on a worthless treadmill of therapy called "Integration" that can never heal their condition. It has deprived them of the freedom available through the Ministry of Deliverance from evil spirits.

I hope this experience I am about to share will expose this deception to all my readers.

I was about thirty minutes into a deliverance session, fighting to free a woman from a demon of destruction who called itself Abaddon. This demon had entered the family seven generations before during a satanic ritual ceremony performed in Mexico. It involved a blood sacrifice of an infant girl.

This family of Satanists knew all about Satan's laws and what was required to attract a demon strong enough to give them the supernatural power they sought. This demon Abaddon accepted their blood offering and entered to become their demon god.

With each passing generation, Abaddon would choose a family member to inhabit, thus moving through the generations until the present where it chose as its house (Ma.12:43, Luke 11:24) this woman I was now praying for.

This vile piece of garbage glared at me through cold evil menacing eyes, screaming every kind of obscenity and threat at me and my prayer partner that you can imagine. When I would I start praying in my prayer language (Tongues) it would start yelling at me in a demonic language they call 'Enochin' to drown me out.

This went on for half an hour when suddenly the woman's face changed from that cold hateful glare to a sweet angelic smile and a voice that sounded like a pre-teenage girl said, 'He's not here.'

It's a pretty common event in a deliverance session for a strong demon to force a weaker one to surface and shield it while it escapes. There is no sense of honor or camaraderie or loyalty in the demonic realm. Like their master Satan, they will throw an underling under the bus in a hot second to save their own skin.

What was different in this case was the fact that it forced an alter to surface. Alters are something of an anomaly in the demonic realm. I will explain what I mean by that later, but I would first like to share with you the conversation I had with this alter culminating with me casting it out just like any other demon.

When it said, "He's not here, I said, "What's your name demon?"

I repeated the command three or four times before it finally spoke.

"I'm not a demon."

"Where did Abaddon go?"

"He left."

"What's your name? I command you in the name of Jesus to speak your name."

"I have no name."

Say, "Jesus is Lord."

This is the litmus test I routinely use to discover whether I am speaking to the person or a cunning demon attempting to deceive me into believing it has left and I am now speaking to the person. If it is the person, they will immediately say "Jesus is Lord". If it is the demon, they will not respond or they may hesitate, but then say "Jesus is Lord" but you will immediately recognize their insincerity. If you make them repeat it, by the third time they will either refuse or break into an evil grin or start screaming profanities.

I repeated the command three or four times before it finally said,

"Jesus is her Lord."

"Demon, I command you in the name Jesus to come out of her."

"I'm not a demon."

"Yes, you are. Now speak your name."

"I have no name. I'm part of her. She prayed to God to help her be kind and friendly and I came as an answer to her prayer.

"You are not from God. You have a name. Tell me what it is."

"I'm not a demon. I'm not ugly."

"You are a demon. Now tell me your name."

"I have to ask permission."

"Who do you have to ask, your master Satan? Listen demon, you don't have to ask anyone for permission. The only thing you have to do is obey me."

"Why do I have to obey you? You're not my father."

"You have to obey me because the Word of God says,

"I give you authority to trample serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy." (Luke 10:19)

“But I’m not a serpent or a scorpion.”

“Stop this garbage right now and tell me your name.”

“But! But! But! I help her.”

“What is your name?”

“What if I tell you my name and then what?”

“Don’t worry about that. All you have to do is obey me and tell me your name.”

Very timidly and hesitantly in that little girl voice it spoke, “My name is Dawn.”

“How do you spell it? D-o-n or D-a-w-n?”

“D-a-w-n.”

“How come you have that name? Did you pick it?”

“Cause I like it. And she likes it. But she doesn’t know about me. She thinks I’m part of her.”

“What do you do?”

“I help her to get through her work. I’m nice to people at work. I like people. So I don’t think I should go.”

“How long have you been in this woman?”

After a long hesitation, “I think it was about the time she started working around people.”

“How old was she?”

“I think twenty two. It was when she started nursing because she had to be nice to people. Everyone liked her and wanted her to be their daughter. She needed me to help her be nice. Cause she’s really really angry and she wanted to change her attitude so I came into her. I’m part of her and so he’s gone.”

“Who’s gone?”

“That demon that wants to kill her. I don’t want her to die so I came up. (long pause) I like you Jess and I like Karen and your pastor and I like Warren. He is a very nice man. He has a very nice aura around him.

“Why did you come up? Did he force you to so he could escape?”

“I came up because she was tired and he was being mean to you but now he’s gone.”

“He’s not gone. He has just escaped for now. Dawn, I know you don’t think you’re a demon but you have to go.”

“I’m not a demon. I told you I’m part of her. She doesn’t know I’m here.”

“Dawn, what triggers you? What makes you come up?”

“When she needs to be nice to people. When she needs to talk to people on the phone and there is all this anger and rage swirling all around her I come up and take over and I’m nice. But sometimes she is so angry she has to get away so she goes home and I get a chance to talk to Darrell (fictitious name for her husband). Darrell knows she has multiple personalities. I’ve heard him tell her she has.”

“How did she react when he told her that?”

“She was shocked. She said, “Really, do you think I do and he said yes.”

“Dawn, you don’t sound like an adult. You sound like a little girl. Do you always talk like a little girl?”

No response.

“How old are you?” No answer.

“Dawn, is Rue still there?” (Rue is a demon we had been fighting earlier that had been raping the woman).

“No he’s gone.”

“How do you know?”

"I don't see him anymore."

"What does Rue do to her?" (I already knew it was a demon of rape but I asked Dawn to see if it would tell me the truth).

"He rapes her so when he comes I come up to protect her and then he rapes me. It hurts and it's not fun but I'm afraid he will hurt her so I protect her. He's been raping her for a long time. It makes her cry. 'After he rapes her he always tells her, 'You can't rape the willing.'"

But she doesn't want him to but she can't stop him. (pause) So I come up and let him rape me instead but she still cries."

"If you come up and take her place then how does she know he raped her? Is she physically hurt from the rape? Is she in pain when she returns?"

"She knows when he rapes her."

"But you said you surface and take her place when he rapes her. Doesn't she go somewhere else when you surface?"

"No, she just turns her head to the side and cries while I'm nice to Rue so he doesn't hurt her so bad."

"Dawn, you have to go."

"I can't go. Who will protect her from Rue?"

"Rue is gone. You know that. I sent him to hell."

Dawn became confused and started crying.

"Dawn, why are you crying? Are you crying because I sent Rue to hell?"

There was no response. The alter continued to cry more profusely.

I asked it again why it was crying but no answer. I said, "Dawn its time for you to go."

"Where am I supposed to go?"

“I don’t care. You can go anywhere you want to.”

The gal we were praying for started coughing for about 30 seconds and then said, “It’s gone.” It was that simple. This so called ‘splinter’ of her personality or alters that claimed to be part of this woman left in the same manner as all the other demons had left her.

Had this woman been prayed over by a therapist or ministry which believed it was a “part of her,” this demon upon being ‘quote’ integrated, would have simply been given a name change and taken a new assignment much like the person who is tagged out of a game goes to the end of the line and gets back in the game again.

I have been accused of heartless cruelty and emotional abuse by other deliverance ministries for casting out alters and told that those I ministered to would only be further wounded. Yet this is the same way Jesus dealt with these so called mental disorders. Even the most broken people in the Bible such as the man living in the tombs (Mk.5:15; Lk.8:35) were healed and freed when Jesus cast out the demons.

This woman, upon coming out of the drowsy like state after the demon Dawn was cast out was alert, happy and grateful it was gone.

My purpose in sharing this “word for word” conversation with this so called alter personality is to expose Satan's myth of MPD.

I would like to point out several facts from this conversation which will help any struggling with this deception to see the evidence that this alter is nothing other than a demon.

1. Dawn would not say, “Jesus is Lord.” If this personality were part of the woman being ministered to, there should have been no reluctance to say, “Jesus is Lord.” Because even if the mind had been splintered the human will and the conscience had not.

2. Dawn said, "I'm not a demon, I'm not ugly," when I addressed it as one. How would it know demons are ugly unless it lived in a world with other demons that are?
3. When I told Dawn it had to obey me, it replied, "Why, you're not my father." It had a father. Demons routinely refer to Satan as their father.
4. How did Dawn know Abaddon was gone if it did not live in a realm occupied by other demons.
5. How would she know when Rue came to rape the woman unless it lived in the same world as the demon Rue?
6. Dawn said it would have to get permission before it could speak to me. Permission from who? It clearly answered to another demon.
7. Dawn said it was there in response to this woman's prayer to God to help her be nice to people when she went into nursing. This demon was not God's answer to her prayer. God doesn't break the mind into two pieces to answer someone's prayer. Jesus came to heal our brokenness, not break us. (Luke 4:18)

God would have answered her prayer by breaking the stronghold of anger that was keeping the fruits of the spirit of kindness and gentleness from being able to grow in her life. Dawn was in fact stopping the fruits of the spirit of kindness and gentleness from growing, as it should in this woman's life. This demon's well being and continued existence depended on this lady's personality remaining gruff and angry.

8. Dawn left in the same manner as all the other demons I cast out of this woman. She coughed, gagged and choked for about one minute and when it was over she started thanking and praising Jesus.

I have pointed out these facts to allow the reader to see the sheer impossibility of Dawn, this so called splinter of her personality, not being a demon.

I wanted you to have a word for word, bird's eye view of an alter surfacing and being cast out, to break any deception you might have regarding the true nature of alters and the fallacy of MPD (Multiple Personality Disorder). We have been conditioned like the proverbial boiled frog, to believe the intellectual community is the last word on the study of any given branch of science, including the human psyche.

While acknowledging there has been many astounding discoveries made through modern science there is a litmus test laid out in the scriptures for judging whether any theory is accurate.

Isaiah 8:20 says,

*“To the law and to the testimony!
If they do not speak according to this Word,
It is because there is no light in them.”*

There is no truth in this theory of M.P.D. It is a godless theory that defies and refutes the Bible's definition and solution to multiple personalities. In part two of this article we will trace the roots of this heresy to the “Enlightenment” and its brainchild, “The Theory of Materialism”
